Re: In re Aluminum Warehousing Antitrust Litigation, No. 13-md-2481;
Reynolds Consumer Products LLC v. Glencore AG, No. 16-cv-5955

Dear Judge Engelmayer:

I write on behalf of all Defendants to request an extension of the deadline for the parties to file summary judgment and Daubert motions from December 17, 2021 to January 14, 2022, and corresponding extensions of later deadlines related to the briefing schedule for these motions. Plaintiffs Reynolds and Southwire consent to the request.

Defendants seek this extension for the following reasons. First, defense counsel have been heavily occupied with a series of other matters related to this and other cases, including preparing a double-length Brief of Defendants-Appellees (due on November 23) in the pending appeals in the IP and FLP cases. Second, Defendants anticipate filing a single summary judgment motion and a single Daubert motion on behalf of all Defendants, and the additional time will help Defendants coordinate on a single consolidated submission. Third, the additional time would enable Defendants to prepare more concise and cogent papers for the benefit of the Court. Finally, the requested extension will preserve the Thanksgiving holiday for Defendants and their counsel.

For these reasons, Defendants respectfully request that the Court so order the following amendments to the existing schedule:
